Terms & Conditions

- 1 If you are a crafter selling your own creations, and do not have public liability insurance as opposed to a business trader, you can take advantage of, and be covered by, Town Teams PLI as long as all other safety standards and regulations are met.
- 2 A copy of your risk assessment, public liability insurance, and food hygiene certificates (if applicable) must accompany this application. If you are unsure about any of these please contact us, we will be pleased to help in any way we can.
- 3 We only accept traders of the highest quality, who will reflect the type of events we produce. "Auctioneers", PA's/amplification, hawking and peddling are strictly forbidden.
4. This event is staged outdoors and traders are responsible for providing their own tables and chairs.
- 5 Vehicles are allowed on site only for settings up and striking. All vehicles must be removed immediately after setting up. No vehicles will be allowed to return to their pitch site until after the event closing time.
- 6 Using offensive or abusive language towards anyone will forfeit your license to trade at this event.
- 7 The organisers retain the right to refuse a pitch at our discretion. In order to maintain quality and for the benefit of all traders only the items you describe in the section 'Nature of Business' may be sold. Please notify us of any changes or additions.
- 8 The following safety regulations must be adhered to:
All products must have British Safety, European Safety Standard or appropriate safety standard.
No goods to be places outside your allotted area.
